WHARF AND WAVE.

When the steamer Hawaii returns to port, she will go on the marine railway for an overhauling.

The steamer Kinsu will return from Hilo on next Tuesday, one day ahead of time. On her arrival she will be docked for a thorough clean-

The Australia will carry away a heavy shipment of bananas but very little sugar, and in consequence she will have to take 300 tons of coal for ballast.

The steamer Lehua is being refitted for the coming sugar season. A new smoke stack will be one of the new improvements. She will be placed on service at an early date.

The departure of the Hyacinth has been indefinitely postponed. The order to remain was received after coal and stores had been

The Japanese steamer Nanshan left for Yokohama yesterday with about one hundred Japanese. The captain shipped a white crew in place of the eight mutineers, who were convicted the other day. William Bagley, James Barrington and J. Woolham, three local characters, are members of the new crew.

The steamship China was advertised to leave San Francisco on last Tuesday. She usually comes down in less than six days, and may be expected on next Monday. There was some talk along the f.ont yesterday about the China attempting a record-breaking trip on her present voyage; if it is so, the agents not been apprised of the fact.

A SOUVENIR BADGE.

Sam McKeague Presented with One While in Pittsburg.

Sam McKeague, a member of the George de Long Post, G. A. R., recently returned home, after attending the twenty-eighth National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was held at Pittsburg, Penn., on September 10th last. Mr. McKeague was delegated to accomplish it. to represent his Post. He was, naturally, made a great deal of for traveling so far to take part in the encampment, and, just before he left for home, was presented with a handsome bronze badge. There were a limited number of the souvenir badges struck off, after which the die was destroyed. The material for the badges was obtained into the pockets of greedy, avaricious from an old cannon that had been officials. stationed in the Alleghany arsenal.

The cannon was donated by an Act of Congress to the Citizens' Executive Committee of Pittsburg for the purpose of making the souvenir had so Fish and badges. Each one was encased in a handsome box made of thin steel representing a section of a railroad rail. The committee, in presenting the badge, had this to say: "May the badge, had this to say: "May and the sould gain no information from them he could gain no information from the said he could gain no information f the precious memories of the old cannon, as embodied in this badge, cheer and brighten your pathway through life and prove a valuable legacy to your children."
